Ordinance No. 2014-7, Chapter 2, Section .07 (c) CONDUCT AT PUBLIC MEETINGS:

An interested party may submit notice of intent to speak only on behalf of himself or herself, and not on behalf of any other person. A representative of a group of interested parties who intends to speak on behalf of the group shall identify the individual members of the group by name and address. An interested party may speak for no longer than five (5) minutes. No comments shall be directed to individual members of the public body.

Defamatory or obscene comments and derogatory remarks directed at any person shall not be permitted. Other comments which are prohibited include personal attacks, racial, sexist, homophobic, religious, political, ethnic, national, sexual, or other epithets; profanity, insulting, rude, vulgar, obnoxious, or foul language; threats, including but not limited to violence or vandalism.

I have read the above statements and understand them. I agree to remain on topic and adhere to the above guidelines.
